SPONSOR PACKAGE

Your support means so much. Here's what we can do for you!

Sponsors play a significant role in the planning and execution of any community festival. Since its first year in 2007, a total of 25 to 30 sponsors have supported the Lithopolis Honeyfest across four different sponsorship categories. These sponsors have included the Ohio Arts Council, Fairfield County Visitors & Convention Bureau, Ohio Farm Bureau, Beehive Botanicals, Haagen-Dazs Ice Cream and super stores such as Meijer and Walmart,

Because of our work and commitment, we are happy to report that 2009 Honeyfest attendance was 7,000 plus (after just 3 short years)! Our audience falls within all ranges – youngest to oldest, pre-school to post-grads, farmers to office workers, and professional artists to artistic professionals.

We do extensive advertising and promotion, which means that you will become branded with the fastest growing and only honey festival in Ohio. Your tax-deductible sponsorship will supplement the cost of festival production and promotion, and supporting the artisans, musicians and beekeepers.

It is our goal to continually develop the Lithopolis Honeyfest by making it one of Ohio's most outstanding family events. Since our first year in 2007, we have received overwhelmingly positive responses from the Village of Lithopolis and Central Ohio communities, Ohio legislators, artisans, musicians, honey producers and beekeepers.

If you would like to receive a 2009 Official Honeyfest Program, please request a copy at the number of email below. The program contains interesting information and reflects professionalism toward our sponsors and the Honeyfest.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Ginger Brenning
